

75 George Street Mount Isa QLD

3 1

Looking for a property with enormous potential? Look no further than this spacious home, situated on an 809m² allotment.

The three bedrooms are all great sizes with carpets and built in robes, close by is the bathroom complete with a shower/bath combo, and the toilet is separate.

Although the kitchen could do with a little TLC the home is in great condition, the open plan living, dining and kitchen areas are tiled with plenty of natural light and an overall bright appearance. The dining area flows out through the double French doors out to the under cover rear deck where there is plenty of room for a large outdoor setting to entertain family and friends.

This home is perfect starter, for families or investors alike, offering an astute buyer the chance to purchase, improve and unlock the homes full potential whilst reaping the rewards.
